Announcement of the launch of Renminbi services

Nippon Wealth Limited, a restricted licence bank (hereinafter called NWB, CEO Tsutomu Nakajima,), is pleased to announce the launch of offshore Renminbi services starting on 8th November 2017.

Not only can NWB offer deposits in offshore Renminbi, but funds and bonds denominated in offshore Renminbi are also available. In addition to the existing 9 currencies, providing products in Renminbi, which attracts increasing interest, will expand the choice of investment products, and will help customers construct a globally diversified portfolio.

NWB, as a financial institution specialized in wealth management, offers as its core services (1) banking services, (2) investment services and (3) insurance and annuity services. In July, NWB launched new investment services called "eNWB" to the clients who wish to start investing USD 100 or above and a monthly mutual fund saving plan called "Fund Savings Plan". NWB will continue to strive to expand its service offering and assist our customers with their wealth management needs better.

*There is no minimum threshold set by NWB on the insurance services. It follows the minimum threshold set by the insurance company.
